A GLIMPSE OF KUALA LUMPUR (09:00-13:00)

Our tour starts with a photo stop at PETRONAS Twin Towers, which were the tallest buildings in the world until 2004, when the record-breaking Taipei 101 was completed. (visit to the Twin Towers Skybridge is optional and chargeable at additional cost)

Travel to the Dataran Merdeka or Independence Square located right at the heart of the colonial district of Old Kuala Lumpur. The most notable feature of the square is the 95m flag pole, the tallest flag pole in the world. It is marked by a marble plaque located in the southern region of the square. Located in front of the Independence Square, The Sultan Abdul Samad building is among Kuala Lumpur's earliest Moorish-style building. It is frequently seen as the backdrop for Malaysia's annual Independence Day parades.

Every great city has a central market, Kuala Lumpur's Central Market located in one of the city's prominent heritage buildings. It is a fine example of 1930s Art Deco style with a stepped entrance design, unifying elements at the window and doors as well as wrought iron panels. A hub for visitors and their inter -state fellow Malaysians who come to shop for ornaments and trinkets made from their cottage industry and to enjoy great varieties of Malaysian cuisine.

Itinerary

Day 02 Finally, stroll down the streets of Petaling Street (Chinatown). A true blue local experience, allowing guests to soak in the buzz of the city. Discover treasures of the East and enjoy the lively scene of street vendors. One can purchase just about anything and everything, haggling is a must-learn from your guide or personal concierge the art of haggling. Transfer back to the hotel after the tour.

RUSTIC KUALA LUMPUR (09:00-12:00)

The Batu Caves were discovered in 1892, situated thirteen kilometers (seven miles) north of the capital city Kuala Lumpur. The limestone forming Batu Caves is said to be about 400 million years old. Some of the caves entrances were used as shelters by the Temuan people, an indigenous tribe known as the Orang Asli. The Batu caves is the sacred place for the Hindu's in Malaysia. To get to the caves, one has to climb 272 steps, which will lead you to the religious and magnificent Batu Caves.

Visit a Batik Factory to see how local batik is made. It is an art of decorating cloth with wax and dye to create wonderful colours and patterns. It is a very versatile fabric that can be seen with either hand-drawn or printed motifs and available in traditional or contemporary styles. View the wide range of batik items, from pareos, sarongs, shirts and dresses to toys, purse and bags.

Gain fascinating insights into the pewter industry at this centre, home of the world-renowned Royal Selangor pewter. Explore the Chamber of Chimes, Hall of Finishes and many more at the interactive gallery of pewter or join the guided factory tour to see the various stages of pewter processing from casting, soldering to engraving. Transfer back to the hotel after the tour.

Itinerary

Day 03 FIREFLIGHT FIREFLIES – “A NIGHT OF THOUSAND STARS” (15:30-22:30)
Our drive starts to Kuala Selangor takes approximately 1.5 hours, passing through small towns, kampungs and plantations.

On arrival at Kuala Selangor, visit "Kota Melawati" formerly known as "Fort Altinsburg", the execution block, royal mausoleum and colonial buildings. The hill offers a panoramic view Selangor coast and the Malacca straits. The hilltop is crowned by a lighthouse and tall beautiful shady trees a haven for silvered leaf monkeys and long tail macaques.

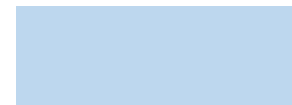

At dusk we drive across the bridge over the Selangor River for a seafood dinner at the riverside restaurant while watching the river view sunset at the fishing Village.

For the highlight of the trip, adjourn to the nearby Kampung kuantan, the world's most promoted firefly colonies. A stream of sampans (wooden boats, non-exclusive) will ferry your guests quietly along the Sungai Selangor to silently listen to the spectacular symphonic harmony of these fireflies while viewing their luminous flashes of light that is truly a magnificent sight to behold. The light show your guests will witness among the massive century-old swamp trees is often referred to as one of the natural wonders of the world. An incredible sighting for every nature lover and a unique experience. Transfer back to the hotel after the tour.

Note : Fireflies sightings are subject to weather conditions.
