Trishaw tour with dinner (4 hrs)

Chinatown has come a long way since the early days when Chinese immigrants made this enclave their home. Filled with a sprawling myriad of shops and eateries, bustling with colourful and exciting activities set against a backdrop of rich history and heritage, Chinatown is not to be missed especially in the evening when everything comes alive.

At Yong Gallery, the fine art of calligraphy is demonstrated by the Master Calligrapher who converts your name or a creative expression into auspicious Chinese characters on a red fan which is yours to keep as a souvenir.

After dinner at a local Chinese restaurant, wander along the narrow lanes of the Night Market and test your bargaining skills against street vendors selling anything from souvenirs to leather goods. The highlight of the evening is a trishaw ride that takes you through the alleyways of Chinatown and down to Clarke Quay. There hop onto a bumboat for a cruise along the Singapore River to see Singapore lit up at night, showcasing beautifully restored shop houses, modern skyscrapers of the financial district, colonial buildings and the iconic Merlion statue.

Note: Dinner is served between 8.15 to 8.30pm. Drinks during dinner are not included. Trishaw Ride is based on 'twin-sharing' basis. Actual pick up & drop off locations will be advised 2 days prior to the selected tour.*

On Nyonyas and Babas (4 hrs)

Baba culture is truly a unique creation of Southeast Asia. It is the culture of an old Chinese immigrant community that settled in what was known as the Straits Settlements: Malacca, Penang and Singapore. The community can trace its presence in Malacca to at least the 17th Century.

The story of the Peranakan people began over five centuries ago when Chinese immigrants and Malays integrated and created the culture and cuisine that is unique to Singapore. The future of the Peranakan is uncertain but there is a great deal of nostalgia for this dying culture and language and recently there has been a revival of the Peranakan Community. Visit a Peranakan shop house where a demo on some of the Peranakan snacks are seen. Enjoy your coffee and desserts, as your host unfolds the history and culture of the Peranakans.

After the tour, each guest will receive a hand-made Peranakan doll door stopper / paperweight that are hand sewed by women volunteers from Mother and Child Project – and social enterprise that provides home based work for disadvantage mothers.

Tour cost at SGD240 per person

Note: Minimum 20 persons required for tour to operate. Tour includes round trip coach transfer and English speaking guide assistance, admission fees & hand-made Peranakan souvenir. Guests will be informed at least 2 days in advance if the minimum number of bookings for the tour session is not reached. Guests may choose to transfer to other sessions or tours (subject to fee adjustments) or request for full refund.

Senses Singapore (2 hrs)

Discover different cultural appreciation that would delight your senses - a combined Tea and Scent appreciation.

Scents appreciation workshop is a special program conducted by a Scent Specialist in Agarwood. A demonstration of preparatory work with all the special apparatus and the right sentiment to appreciate the scents so as to achieve ultimate inner tranquillity and healing.

Scents culture goes well with tea appreciation as total experience with taste and smell senses together. A Chinese tea cup may look small, but it holds a great deal more than tea and water. As you listen to the tea master, you might believe you are sipping the distillation of thousands of years of Chinese culture. He'll tell you not only about tea, but also the intricate rituals involved in drinking it. Tea appreciation encompasses not only an understanding of the important qualities of this revered leaf, but also the contemplative thoughts that tea drinking has inspired throughout Chinese history.

Tour cost: SGD140 per person

Note: Minimum 20 persons are required (max 40 persons) per session for tour to operate. Tour includes round trip coach transfer and English speaking coordinator, tea and scent appreciation. Guests will be informed at least 2 days in advance if the minimum number of bookings for the tour session is not reached. Guests may choose to transfer to other sessions or tours (subject to fee adjustments) or request for full refund.
