COME FOR THE MEETING - STAY FOR THE ADVENTURE!

Join ISMRM “down under” in beautiful Sydney, NSW, Australia, for our 2020 Annual Meeting. Connect with our vibrant, collaborative, international, and interdisciplinary family of MR clinicians, physicists, engineers, biochemists, radiographers & technologists and industry professionals.

Take in the wonder of Sydney while discovering, along with thousands of MR professionals, the latest innovations, techniques and research in magnetic resonance. Watch the sunrise over Bondi Beach, visit the architectural genius of the Sydney Opera House, climb the engineering feat of the Sydney Harbor Bridge and taste the cultural fusion cuisine.

Come for the meeting to share and network with us as we continue the push to advance the impact and reach of magnetic resonance in medicine - and then stay for the adventure.

See you in Sydney 2020.
