

ESUR Teaching Course on Prostate MRI

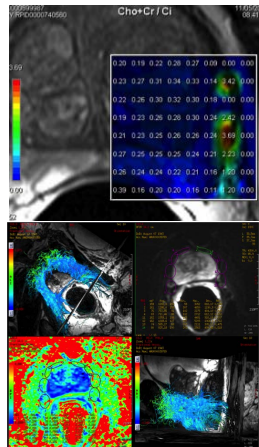

prostate MRI

Friday-Saturday, June 22-23, 2012

2nd ESUR Teaching Course on Prostate MRI
Endorsed by the European Society of Urogenital Radiology (ESUR)
- Hands on session on Post-Processing

ROME, ITALY

www.prostatemricourse.com

prostate MRI

COURSE

Friday, June 22 2nd ESUR Teaching Course on Prostate MRI

Main topics

- Prostate at glance
- MR Technical requirements
- Technique and Imaging Protocols (MRI, DWI, MRS, DCE-MR)

Hands on session

- Overview on Post-Processing,
Teaching and practice on Workstation

Saturday, June 23 2nd ESUR Teaching Course on Prostate MRI

Main topics

- Clinical indications: from screening to treatment
- Targeted biopsy and focal therapies
- Prostate Cancer Recurrence
- Recommendations and ESUR guidelines

Hands on Session

- Main pitfalls in interpreting MR
Assisted and free practice on Workstation

Learning objectives

This teaching course aims to provide practical information for radiologists who are willing to start or promote prostate MRI at their own institution. It will include formal state-of-the-art lectures presented by experts in the field. The course is structured in two parts, focusing primarily on the advanced technical issues and relatives clinical indications. During the Hands-on session the groups of participants will rotate between different consoles.

Course Organiser

Valeria Panebianco (I)

Faculty

Jelle Barentsz (NL)	Rodolfo Montironi (I)
Carlo Catalano (I)	Valeria Panebianco (I)
François Cornud (F)	Tom Scheenen (NL)
Jurgen Fütterer (NL)	Alessandro Sciarra (I)
Henkjan Huisman (NL)	Geert Villeirs (BE)

registration and hotel accommodation

Early Fee until April 15, 2012

Venue

Via Caserta 6, 00161 Rome, Italy

Official language

English

Contact & information

Valeria Panebianco
valeria.panebianco@gmail.com
Department of Radiological Sciences
Sapienza University of Rome
Viale Regina Elena, 324
00161 Rome - Italy

