MRI Technologist – Radiology – MRI

New Hanover Regional Medical Center
Wilmington, NC

The MRI Technologist is responsible for performing diagnostic magnetic resonance imaging procedures on patients as ordered by a physician to assist in the diagnosis and treatment of patients.

Qualifications:
- High school diploma or equivalent
- Completion of a two-year degree in an approved Radiology program or work experience recommended by the approved licensing agency
- Registered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists, CNMT or ARDMS
- American Heart Association HS (Heart Saver)
- Previous MRI experience preferred

Wilmington, NC is a growing coastal community of around 100,000 people in Southeastern North Carolina. Enjoy living and working where most people vacation. Year-round boating, golf, fishing, tennis, and biking are available. We have a vibrant, historical downtown with excellent restaurants and an active cultural arts community.

New Hanover Regional Medical Center offers a benefits package designed to ensure access to quality healthcare and help you maintain a healthy lifestyle.
- Teaching hospital, regional referral center, and Level II Trauma Center
- Southeastern North Carolina’s largest employer with more than 6,900 employees

Leading Our Community to Outstanding Health

Join Our Talented Team Today! Apply: www.nhrmc.org/careers

EOE - NHRMC is committed to inclusion and diversity