The Clinical Coordinator, MRI full-time 12-month position will contribute by teaching, scholarship and professional development of students.

Responsibilities:

- Prepare instructional materials and evaluation instruments for teaching and clinical assignments.
- Assist in curriculum design, development, revision and implementation.
- Direct lectures and laboratory/clinical sessions in the performance aspects of the related theory of Magnetic Resonance Imaging.
- Observes, evaluates and records performance of students and renders supplemental training as required.
- Work cooperatively with Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) Program Director and clinical educators on student clinical evaluations and clinical content.
- Keep abreast of current development in Magnetic Resonance Imaging and education by participation in continuing education activities, e.g., attendance at workshops, symposia, professional meetings, etc.
- Actively participate in the professional development of students through advisement, evaluation and supervision of research effort in appropriate areas.
- Participate in and contribute to the administration of the Department, College and University as required, e.g., through committee membership, participation in seminars and symposia, attendance at University, College and Departmental ceremonies, etc.
- Participate in professional organizations through leadership roles at the local, state and national level.

Qualifications:

Master’s Degree preferred, Bachelor’s Degree required; candidates must be currently enrolled or enroll upon hire in a Master’s program if they do not already have a Master’s Degree.

Valid ARRT Certification and registration in MRI required. Registration in additional credentials such as radiography, computed tomography, nuclear medicine, radiation therapy desired.

Two years professional experience in the discipline required.

This is a salaried position with a generous benefit and retirement program. Academic appointment and salary will be commensurate with experience.

Review of applications to fill this position will begin immediately.

Interested applicants should submit an on-line application/CV:

http://hr.jefferson.edu/human-resources.html Job ID #9261366 more than 8,400 students from nearly 40 states and 40 countries with 21st century professional education. Combined, we have over 30,000 employees.

Jefferson Health, with 14 hospitals and 40+ outpatient and urgent care locations, offers a broad range of primary and complex, highly specialized care. U.S. News & World Report has ranked Thomas Jefferson University Hospital among the nation’s best in eight specialties. Jefferson Health also includes the NCI designated Sidney Kimmel Cancer Center; it is one of only 70 such centers in the nation.

Thomas Jefferson University has ten colleges and three schools that offer more than 160 undergraduate and graduate programs. Our University is dedicated to inter-professional and transdisciplinary approaches to learning that offer a vibrant and expandable platform for professional education. Through this unique model, we are preparing our students for current and yet to be imagined careers.

As an employer, Jefferson maintains a commitment to provide equal access to employment. Jefferson values diversity and encourages applications from women, members of minority groups, LGBTQ individuals, disabled individuals, and veterans.