As an MRI Facility Manager, you will play a pivotal role in the seamless operation of our state-of-the-art CTRIM core, overseeing multiple animal MRI scanners and imaging equipment. Your responsibilities will span maintaining technical integrity, promptly addressing problems, and communicating with vendors to ensure optimal functionality.

Key Responsibilities:

- Oversee the operation of animal MRI scanners and imaging equipment.
- Maintain technical integrity and promptly address equipment abnormalities or disruptions.
- Engage with users to ensure the acquisition of high-quality data and devise tailored imaging protocols.
- Welcome new users and provide training as needed.

Research Involvement:

Beyond facility management, you will have the opportunity to contribute to research activities. Conduct your own investigations, collaborate with fellow scientists, and share your findings through presentations at national and international meetings. Your research outcomes will be disseminated through publications in peer-reviewed journals.

Qualifications:

- Proven experience in MRI facility management.
- Strong technical proficiency in animal MRI scanners and other imaging equipment.
- Excellent communication skills to engage with users and collaborate on research endeavors.
- Track record of conducting and disseminating research findings.

How to Apply:

If you are passionate about advancing scientific research, contributing to cutting-edge projects, and managing state-of-the-art MRI facilities, we invite you to apply. Send your resume and a cover letter detailing your relevant experience to: pwalczak@som.umaryland.edu

Join us in shaping the future of scientific discovery at the CTRIM Core!

Competitive salary, administrative stipend, and comprehensive benefits are proudly offered. Faculty rank is commensurate with the candidate's qualifications and experience. Please send CV with cover letter of interest to the attention of Barbara Stewart at bstewart@umm.edu, or fax 410-328-0641.
